

5th INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON KARST. Malaga (Spain), 14-16 October 2014

PROVISIONAL PROGRAM FOR ACCOMPANYING PERSONS
(The Organization reserves the option to change the program, if necessary)

Number minimum: 10 people

Number maximum: 30 people

Price: 180 euros

Registered accompanying persons are invited to participate in a series of guided tours intended to provide them with the opportunity to discover Malaga city and its region, very rich in Natural and Cultural Heritage. On Tuesday and Thursday, it offer a walking tour of the city, to discover its monuments and museums. On Wednesday, you will join the rest of the symposium participants to visit one karstic area of the Malaga Province.

Tuesday, 14th October: Guided walking tour of Malaga city.

Morning: visit to the Roman theatre and the castles “Alcazaba” and “Gibralfaro”.

Lunch in one of the city’s restaurants

Afternoon: Cathedral and Museum of the Holy Week (Semana Santa)

Welcome cocktail

Wednesday, 15th October: intra-symposium excursion in Malaga province. Three tours are offered:

Field-trip 1: Torcal de Antequera and Alta Cadena mountains

Field-trip 2: Nerja Cave and Coastal Karst Area in the Mediterranean coast

Field-trip 3: Evaporite karst areas (Fuente de Piedra and Archidona wetlands)

Lunch at one of the local restaurants

Thursday, 16th October

Morning: visit to the Pantheon of the Counts of Buenavista and the San Miguel Cemetery.

Lunch in one of the city's restaurants

Afternoon: Picasso Museum and the Casa Natal (birthplace of Picasso).

Gala dinner

